COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA

OFFICE OF

CLERK OF THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES

Proposed amendment to the Constitution of Virginia, agreed to at session of General Assembly 1910, and published in pursuance of section 196 of the Constitution and Act approved February 3, 1908.

JOINT RESOLUTION proposing amendment to section 117 of article 8 of the Constitution of Virginia, and providing for publishing said amendment and certifying the same to the next general assembly.

Resolved, by the senate and the house of delegates (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing thereto), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same is, hereby proposed and referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election of senators and members of the house of delegates, for its concurrence. in conformity to the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six of article fifteen of said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia, section one hundred and seventeen, which is in the words and figures following, to-wit:

$117. General laws for the organization and government of cities and towns shall be enacted by the general assembly, and no special act shall be passed in relation thereto, except in the manner provided in article four of this Constitution, and then only by a recorded vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each house. But each of the cities and towns of the State having at the time of the adoption of this Constitution a municipal charter may retain the same, except so far as it shall be repealed or amended by the general assembly: provided that every such charter is hereby amended so as to conform to all the provisions, restrictions, limitations and powers set forth in this article, or otherwise provided in this

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

§117. General laws for the organization and government of cities and towns shall be enacted by the general assembly, and no special act shall be passed in relation thereto, except in the manner provided in article four of this Constitution, and then only by a recorded vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each house; and except also in the case of cities having more than fifty thousand inhabitants, as hereinafter provided. But each of the cities and towns of the State having at the time of the adoption of this amendment a municipal charter may retain the same, except so far as it shall be repealed or amended by the general assembly: provided, that every such charter is hereby amended so as to conform, to all the provisions, restrictions, limitations and powers so forth in this article, or otherwise provided in this Constitution.

Notwithstanding, however, anything in this article contained, the general assembly may, by general law or by special act (passed as pr scribed in article four of this Constitution), depart in any respect (exec; as otherwise in this section expressly provided) from the form of organi: tion and government prescribed by this article for cities and towns, at may provide, from time to time, for the various cities and towns of ; Commonwealth, such form or forms of municipal government as the gene assembly may deem best; but no form or ferms of government authori t by the second paragraph of this section shall become operative except to such cities or towns as may thereafter adopt the same by a maje vote of its qualified electors at an election to be held as may be present therefor by law. All the limitations on the powers of the councils of ci and towns imposed by this article shall apply in like manner to principal legislative authority under any form of re authorized hereunder. The term "council" as used in sections one ared and twenty-five and one hundred and twenty-seven of this Constitu shall be construed to include the body which, under any form of municipal government, shall be vested with the principal legislative authority of suc.

The general assembly, for the purpose of this article, may classi cities according to their population, but the maximum population rescribed for any class shall exceed the minimum population for the sand class by at least ten thousand. The general assembly, at the request made in manner which may be prescribed by law, of any city having a popula-tion of over fifty thousand inhabitants, may grant a special form of government for such city.

Any laws or charters enacted pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be subject to the provisions of this Constitution relating expressly to judges and clerks of courts, attorneys for the Commonwealth, commissioners of revenue, city treasurers and city sergeants.

Resolved, That the clerk of the house of delegates be authorized and required to cause this proposed amendment and these resolutions to be published for three months previous to the time of the next general election of the members of the house of delegates.

Resolved, That the clerk of the house of delegates be required to transmit to the general assembly at its first regular session held after the next general election of members of the house of delegates a certified copy of said proposed amendment and these resolutions, together with the certification cate of publication by the publishers of newspapers in which the said amendment shall have been published.

I hereby certify that the foregoing is a true copy of amendment proposed to the Constitution and agreed to by the General Assembly of Virginia, session 1910, and the same is published in pursuance of section 196 of the Constitution and Act of the General Assembly, approved February 3, 1908.

CONCESSIONS TO ENGLAND.

The Venezuelan government yesterday signed an important concession providing for the installation in Caracas of an extensive water supply, sanitary and sewerage system and for paving the city.

This concession has been placed in the band of Gen. Ramon Delgardo Chalbaud, Commander-General of the Navy who has sailed today for London to negotiate a sale of the concession to an English syndicate. General Chalbaud also will sell new bank concession and treat for a transfer to English capitalists of the great ten-million dollar navigation monoly recently granted to a Venzuean company.

The navigation concession is the most far-reaching in the history of Venezuela. The government, on June 9, signed contract with a river and coast navigation company, giving it for 50 years the privilege of navigating all rivers and lakes in the republic and the exploitation and colonization of the entire Amazon territory.

Preference was given the company as regards mining claims and in the rabber country.

A salt monopoly also was granted for a period of five years. English capitalists immediately began negotiations for a transfer of the contract and General Chalbaud is authorized to deal

A STARTLING BILL.

Five Thousand Reis For Two Meals In a Brazilian Hotel.

Hotels are few and ill conducted in the Brazilian coast towns, although an occasional good one is met with. Americans who patronize a Brazilian hotel or restaurant for the first time are generally treated to a surprise when the bill is presented. Two young sailors had dinner one day in Pernamburo, and, to their horror, the bill was 5,000 reis. They nearly fainted and would have fled without attempting to settle; but, there being no chance of escape, they clubbed t gether all the money they had, about $12, and humbly offered it to the proprietor. Instead of having them thrown into jail, he laughed and explained that their bill in American coin was $250 He furthermore explained that the basis of Brazilian currency is an imaginary coin called a reis, 1,000 of which make a milreis. Everything is counted in rels, and the figures have very imposing sound-200 reis for a ride on a street car. 100 reis for having your boots blacked, a million reis system, but the Brazilians seem to think it perfection.-Exchange.
